

Southern Charm- Savannah
With Tom Comerford
April 27- May 1, 2025

April 27, 2025

This afternoon you will arrive in historic Savannah, Georgia. Savannah is a coastal city known for manicured parks, antebellum architecture, and being Waterford, Ireland's sister city! Once you arrive, there will be time to check in and freshen up before we head to the American Prohibition Museum. Travel back in time to explore this interactive experience of America's dry spell during the 1850s-1920s. Make sure you stop in for a period accurate cocktail at the end of your tour! Next, we will have a group dinner at a nearby restaurant. After our first southern feast, we will continue to a nearby pub for our first live performance! After the performance the night is yours!

This morning after breakfast, the day is yours once again to explore at your leisure. Enjoy the fabulous waterfront area, head over to the River Street Market Place that is full of artisanal gifts and treats with a variety of cafes and restaurants. Tonight, there will be a haunted carriage ride. Savannah is the most haunted city in America! Enjoy the stories of ghostly encounters and unexplained phenomena as we clip-clop through Savannah's horrifying past. After our ghost tour, we will have dinner as a group before another performance at a nearby pub!
