

Notre Dame Fighting Irish

Men's Hockey – Friendship Four Ireland 2024

6 Night Package - Dublin & Belfast - Nov 25th – Dec 1st, 2024

Sun Nov 24th: Heading for the Emerald Isle

Today we start our journey by departing the United States and taking an overnight flight across the Atlantic Ocean to arrive in Dublin Airport, Ireland.

Mon Nov 25th: Welcome to Ireland

This morning we will land in Dublin Airport and once you proceed through to the arrivals area, you will be met and transferred to your first destination, Co. Dublin, the small capital of Ireland with a huge reputation. We will take a panoramic sightseeing tour of Dublin to see local landmarks and historic buildings like the GPO (General Post Office) on O'Connell Street and Trinity College, housing the Book of Kells, and much more.

We then journey deep into the heart of Ireland's most famous brands, Guinness, which has called the legendary St. James's Gate Brewery 'home' since 1759. We will visit the Guinness Storehouse to hear the story of this iconic drink, touring the seven floors here which bring to life the heritage of Guinness from its early days to its growth into a global brand that is known and enjoyed all around the world. What better place to savor a pint of Guinness than sitting high above Dublin in the Guinness Storehouse Gravity Bar.

After that introduction to Dublin, we will check into the hotel and to enjoy free time. Enjoy your first night in Dublin, the capital with a pub to person ratio which is the envy of many other cities!

Overnight: Dublin City Center Hotel (B)

Tue Nov 26th: A Day Trip to Wicklow

Enjoy a hearty breakfast this morning and prepare to swap the city lights for scenic countryside as today on tour, we're heading to Co. Wicklow, known as 'The Garden of Ireland', to visit one of Ireland's most famous attractions, Glendalough Monastic Site, a fascinating early Christian settlement positioned in a glaciated valley with two lakes that was founded by Saint Kevin in the 6th century. Despite attacks by Vikings over the years, Glendalough thrived as one of Ireland's great ecclesiastical foundations and schools of learning until the Normans destroyed the monastery in 1214 A.D. Here, we will hear the fascinating story and tour the grounds of the 'Monastic City' which consists of a number of monastic remains dating from the 10th to 12th centuries.

With a morning well spent in Co. Wicklow, we will return to the city of Dublin by this afternoon. You will be dropped off at the hotel to enjoy the rest of your day in Dublin at your leisure.

Overnight: Dublin City Center Hotel (B)

Wed Nov 27th: Next Stop...Belfast

Following breakfast this morning, we will depart Dublin to seek new adventures in Belfast, the famous transformed capital city of Northern Ireland and host city of the Friendship Four Festival of Hockey. We will journey north of Dublin to arrive in Belfast, known in equal parts for the birthplace of the Titanic, the notorious history of Northern Ireland and as one of today's most exciting cities to visit throughout Ireland, the UK and the world.

Upon arrival in Belfast, we will take a panoramic sightseeing tour of the city to take in all of its historic and fascinating areas including the City Centre, the Protestant neighborhood of Shankill Road, the Catholic neighborhood of Falls Road and much more. We will then proceed to check-in at the hotel where you have free time to enjoy the remainder of your day in Belfast, a city now renowned for its outstanding range and quality of food and drink establishments.

Overnight: Belfast City Center Hotel (B,D)

Thu Nov 28th: Thanksgiving in Belfast

Happy Thanksgiving! Enjoy your Irish breakfast as we prepare to spend a holiday like no other - Thanksgiving celebrated Northern Ireland style! This morning, we will depart the city to visit Northern Ireland's iconic attraction and its only UNESCO World Heritage site, The Giants Causeway in Co. Antrim. From Belfast, we will journey via the Causeway Coastal Route, which is dubbed one of the best coastal drives in the world, to reach the world-famous Giant's Causeway renowned historically and scientifically for its polygonal columns of layered basalt. Resulting from a volcanic eruption 60 million years ago, this is the focal point for a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty which has attracted visitors for centuries as well as legendary giants. Enjoy a tour of the unique site and geological wonder which is home to a wealth of natural history and local legend.

We then return to the hotel to prepare for your Thanksgiving Dinner.
